Czech Diplomat Kills Wife and Ends Own Life

By RAY KOHN

NEW YORK (AP)—A Czechoslovak diplomat, who killed his wife and led police in a wild two-state chase Thursday, died today of a bullet he fired into his brain after cracking up his big limousine.

The diplomat, Karel Zizka, about 40, died at St. Luke's Hospital at Fountain Hill, Pa., despite efforts by doctors to keep him alive.

Zizka stopped breathing around 7 a.m. Doctors quickly opened his chest, massaged his heart and he resumed breathing. However, his heart stopped again a little after 10:20 a.m. and this time it could not be restarted.

Zizka was an attache of the Czech United Nations mission here.

He also had a shoulder wound inflicted by a Pennsylvania State trooper.

The body of Zizka's brown-haired wife, Vera, 40, a bullet through her head, lay unnoticed in their apartment in the Czech mission on upper Madison Avenue for hours as Zizka, leaving behind a note telling of the murder and his suicide intent, began his frenzied 7-mile flight. He drove a black Cadillac, owned by the mission and bearing diplomatic license plates.

Roaring away from the mission building, Zizka's car was involved in two minor traffic accidents near his home. He got out of them by claiming diplomatic immunity.

Zizka, 6-foot-2 and 240 pounds, then headed the car into New Jersey and stepped on the gas as he sped west on Route 22. Three Jersey State Police cars were after Zizka at speeds up to 110 miles an hour when the limousine crossed the state line, where Pennsylvania highway patrolmen took up the chase.

Near Easton, Pa., Zizka's car roared off the road, down an embankment, and overturned.

Cpl. John Udiltis, alerted by radio, found the limousine with Zizka lying beside it.

"The man was lying there on his stomach," Udiltis said. "He had a cigarette in his left hand and his right hand was concealed from view under his body."

Advancing with gun drawn, Udiltis ordered Zizka to bring his right hand into view. But, said the trooper, "he just kept on smoking and kept his eyes trained on me. Upon my second order to bring out his hand empty it came out with a revolver in it. He pointed it at me and I fired."

In the next instant another shot rang out. Zizka had put his revolver to his right temple.

Inside the car, police said they found two broken bottles of vodka.

In the Zizka apartment were broken bottles of wine, whisky and gin, and wild disorder. The official Czech statement said: "The flat was in a terrible state and demolished."

Mrs. Zizka, mother of two children still in Czechoslovakia, was clad in a nightgown and lay on the bedroom floor. She apparently had been shot through the head while in bed, then rolled to the floor.

Miles Vejoda, mission counsel, told of breaking down the door to get into the third-floor apartment after Mrs. Zizka failed to answer, the telephone or repeated knocks at the door.

Vejoda, in his official statement, said: "On the table there was a report written by Mr. Zizka explaining that he killed his wife and that he will commit suicide. According to all persons who have known them, the Zizkas' family life was happy and quiet."

"And this tragic event can be explained only by a sudden mental breakdown."

Vejoda claimed that police were notified immediately after the dis-

Ben Bella Is a Turncoat, Gops Declare

Progressing Now, No Need for Change, Is Democratic Theme

Georgia to Get Negro Legislator

ATLANTA (AP)—For the first time since Reconstruction Days following the Civil war, a Negro appeared assured today of taking a seat in the Georgia Senate next January.

However, the issue is so entangled in legal complications that it may be several days before the final outcome is known.

As matters stand at the moment, the Democratic and Republican nominees from the 38th Senatorial District in Fulton (Atlanta) County are Negroes.

Barring a successful write-in campaign for a white, independent candidate in the November general election, or some future court action, one of the two Negroes seems assured of winning a senate seat.

The 38th is a predominantly Negro district.

District results from Tuesday's Democratic primary, announced late Thursday night by the party's county executive committee, showed Leroy R. Johnson, a Negro attorney, polled a majority of the votes over three white opponents. Results of the primary had been tabulated earlier on a countywide basis, and in that count Johnson failed to win a majority and faced a runoff against Ed Barfield.

The district-only vs. countywide balloting is the key to the situation.

Hurricane Moves Slowly Along Coast

CAPE HATTERAS, N.C. (AP)—A massive hurricane remained almost stationary 200 miles south of here in the Atlantic today, a menace to shipping and a threat to the mainland.

Hurricane Ella, the season's fifth tropical storm, was expected to remain in her position until about 5 p.m. tonight, when the Weather Bureau forecast it would begin a slow northeastward movement.

The storm has held her position since Thursday. The weather Bureau said three of its planes were dispatched to fly through the hurricane to collect research data at various levels.

Top winds in the hurricane continued at 90 m.p.h. near its eye and gale force winds those up to 54 m.p.h. were affecting shipping over an area almost 600 miles in diameter.

The wind, swelling seas which buffeted the beaches and overcast skies were the only coastal indications of the Atlantic storm.

At Atlantic Beach, N.C., waves eight to 10 feet high were reported.

Fulbright and Harris Speak to Over 350

A Democratic rally here today came to a close tonight with a dinner that featured addresses by Senator William J. Fulbright and Congressman Oren Harris. Over 350 persons from 11 South-west Arkansas Counties attended.

The theme of the rally was "we are making progress and now is no time to change." Both candidates, facing Republican opponents, carried out that theme and praised every member of the Arkansas delegation in Congress and local and state Democratic officials.

Sch. Fulbright was introduced by his campaign manager, James H. Pilkinton, Hope attorney, who said the only reason the Winthrop Rockefeller crowd wanted Arkansas to go Republican was to help elect his brother president of the United States.

The Senator pointed to the Millwood project in this area, the various hospital and rest homes, the interstate highway program and many other local, state and federal "partnership programs."

In reference to his opponent, the Senator said he apparently wants to amputate all these partnership programs as well as public housing, water pollution control, river development and even the postal department.

"This pessimistic line is a strange one to take. Never in the history of mankind has a country been so well off as the United States. Arkansas' per capita income gain is the greatest in the nation and this shows we are making progress."

The Senator said that the South's wealth was destroyed by the Civil War and the Republican in power did nothing about it. They exploited the South and it wasn't until World War I that the South was able to shake off the shackles, he said.

He cited the coming of aluminum plants to the south of the bauxite in Arkansas, a plan developed by the government, at a major breakthrough and declared where there has been tremendous growth in Arkansas since.

Republicans never had an interest in Arkansas, why now, he questioned. A small state like Arkansas can only protect and promote its interests through seniority in Congress. It is a tradition to gain important committee chairmanships through seniority and that is the only way a small state has a fair opportunity, he said.

Arkansas has the strongest congressional delegation of any State and to change that power now would be a step backward.

Rep. Oren Harris, introduced by Jim Gouch of Arkadelphia, referred to Arkansas Republicans as a bunch of amateurs but admitted they pose some threat. The want to make an inroad now and eventually carry the State, he said.

He too pointed to the strength of the Arkansas delegation. If a Republican were elected from Arkansas he would not head single committee and there is where policy and legislation is decided. Arkansas' strength was proven when we go every waterworks appropriation we asked for in Congress this year, Mr. Harris concluded.

Boyd Tackett of Texarkana was master of ceremonies. Earlier in the day a reception was held for the Senator and Congressman and their wives at Hotel Barlow.

covery of Mr. Zizka's body, between noon and 1 p.m.

After finding Mrs. Zizka, Czech officials made no attempt to interfere with the city police investigation, despite the diplomatic immunity enjoyed by the mission.

Regarding the slaying, Deputy Chief Inspector George W. Gallagher said: "No police action is planned, there are no charges to be made. The incident occurred on foreign territory. We have no jurisdiction. There will be no autopsy. The body will not go to the morgue."

The Zizkas came to this country three years ago. They left their two children, a boy 1, and a girl, 18, behind in Prague.

Development corporation members said they feared voters would not approve a bond issue to finance the plant for Curtis Manufacturing Co.

The Georgia Supreme Court refused Thursday to intervene in the case at this time.

The Georgia Legislature recently reapportioned the Georgia Senate, under federal court orders, to give urban areas representation in keeping with their population.

Lawmakers specified that in counties with more than one senator, balloting should be on a county-wide—rather than district—basis.

Some lawmakers said at the time that countywide balloting was necessary to prevent a Negro from winning a senate seat from Fulton. The legislature also adopted a proposed constitutional amendment writing the countywide balloting provision into the state's organic law. This must be voted on in the general election next month.

Pye ruled that at present countywide balloting is unconstitutional. If Johnson's Democratic nomination stands, his Republican opponent in the general election will be T. M. Alexander, a Negro insurance man.

Weds Day Before Life Sentence

DUNCAN Okla. (AP)—James Richard Ellis 27 of Van Buren Ark. was married to his hometown sweetheart Wednesday less than 24 hours before he was to begin serving a life sentence for murder.

Justice of the Peace Virgil Robertson performed the wedding ceremony for Ellis and Dorothy Lee Lingar.

John Dale Radley 40 of Fort Smith Ark. who with Ellis was sentenced to life in the slaying of Kelsie C. Beauchamp Jr., a Duncan attorney, last Feb. 8, was the best man.

Ellis and Radley were to be moved to state prison at McAlester today.

Miss Lingar was with Ellis when he was arrested last week in eastern Oklahoma, but she was cleared of any connection with the shooting of Beauchamp.

Radley and Ellis pleaded guilty.

visit to Cuba this week in which he agreed with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro that the United States must pull out of its naval base at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba.

On Monday Ben Bella was welcomed by President Kennedy in White House ceremonies that included full military honors and a presidential pledge of friendship to the nation which recently won independence from France.

On Tuesday, Ben Bella was greeted warmly by Castro in Havana and the two put out a communique, noting they had "an essential identity of viewpoints" on world affairs.

These actions were labeled "turncoat activities" in a statement Thursday by Rep. William E. Miller of New York, Republican national chairman; Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, GOP Senate Campaign Committee chairman, and Rep. Bob Wilson of California, head of the Republican House Campaign Committee.

There was criticism also from Sen. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., who called for a break in diplomatic relations with Algeria, and from Sen. Kenneth Keating, R-N.Y., who urged the United States ignore Ben Bella.

Clerk Ordered Before Court

RUSSELLVILLE Ark. (AP)—Chancellor Wiley Bean has ordered the Pope County Elections Commission to appear before him today to show why it would not certify Mrs. Doris Woodard of Russellville as an independent candidate for county clerk.

Bean ruled after a hearing Wednesday that Mrs. Woodard's candidacy could not be rejected on grounds that she has not paid her poll tax. He said she is a qualified elector.

The judge said he wants to know if petitions to get Mrs. Woodard's name on the Nov. 6 election ballot contained enough signatures.

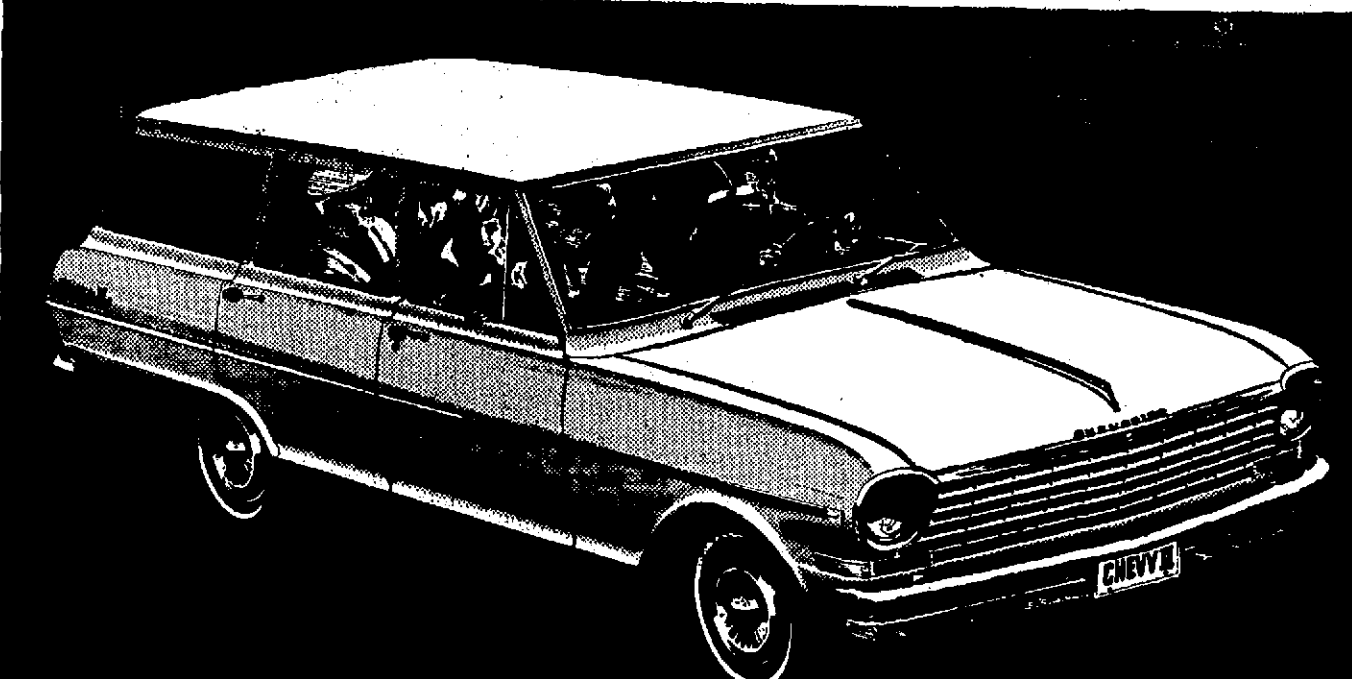

Mrs. Woodard contends Earl Burris a former elections commissioner accepted her petition and marked it filed but Neil Jackson who replaced Burris on the commission refused to accept the petition from Burris.

EXCITING! GO '63 CHEVY II

SPUNKY NEW WAGONS THAT LEAD LONGER, HAPPIER LIVES

What a new kick you'll get out of going places in this one! And what a solvent feeling you'll get as the savings on upkeep mount! There's a full line of models, including three wagons. Basically, we've kept Chevy II's liveliness and roominess and easy loading ways. Kept its crisp looks, too (with a bit of freshening here and there). The changes we've made weren't for change's sake, you see—but for yours. Just for a sample: the brakes are self-adjusting. The new Delcotron generator gives you more electrical reserve power and helps your battery reach a vigorous old age. The Body by Fisher beauty lasts longer, too; air pushes rain and wash water down through the rocker panels (where most rust begins!) in a clever new flush-and-dry system. The ride is smoother and quieter because of a large number of small improvements we've made. And things are a lot plusher inside. Now you've read this far, haven't you? Isn't that good evidence that Chevy II is made for you? The clincher will come when you take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's.

See four entirely different kinds of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's... Chevrolet, Chevy II, Corvair & Corvette.

Do Girls Who By-Pass Wolfing Miss Out?

By HELEN ORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen: You claim that, "Be good, sweet maid, and let who will be clever," scares off the boys. "Don't be too serious," you warn us girls. What do you call serious? Is it "going all the way?" Suppose I date a man who, encouraged by my seriousness, makes a pass then boldly suggests a holiday for two. When I refuse like a lady, he puts up an argument, "If you like me and I like you, what's wrong?" Because I resisted he is lost — forever.

How can a woman be alluring, yet aloof, without being dubbed a "cold fish"? I think those of us who say "No" should drop the phrase of "Be good, sweet maid" and show some intelligence. If men are clumsy in their approach to the almighty conquest, it's because we girls haven't the gumption to show we prefer to be wooed first, then loved. I'm not quibbling with your attitude, only giving a point of view. Being a 25-year-old divorcee, I'm not without experience. It's my observation that the girls who say "Yes" have the best time in life. What say you?

—Twenty-five

Dear Twenty-five: You're quite right; as my mail indicates, few girls use intelligence in dealing stamped, self-addressed envelope with boys. But if you think those who say "Yes" are using their intelligence you are sadly mistaken. That which is free is usually paid for with interest and this includes sex. Before going any further, let us define intelligence. According to Webster, it is the power to meet a novel or unfamiliar situation successfully. This comes only with experience and maturity. And how many so-called adults possess both.

There is no easy answer to the question you raise. All I can say is that the really intelligent people are those who exercise self-control, yet manage to extract the best from life without disaster to themselves.

Dear Helen: Though 17 and in my senior year at high, my older sisters and brothers still tell me what to do. They seem to think it's their job, not Mama's, to raise me. Mama was married 28 years and had 11 children, six of whom are already on their own. So she should know her business. How can I get my brothers and sisters to lay off? —L. A. P.

Dear L. A. P.: Ask your mother to speak to them. But make sure you obey her, else they will take over again, claiming she can no longer control you. Send a small charity which specializes in helping the aged? As president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Vin-

Rev. John Finn
A revival will begin at Calvary Baptist Church, 1201 West Avenue B, Sunday, Oct. 21 and continue through the week. The Rev. John Finn, pastor, will be the evangelist and Red Johnson, Mountain Home, will be in charge of music. Services will be held at 7:30 each night and the nursery will be open.

With an Adolescent, which you might show those brothers and sisters.

Dear Helen: Can you, or your readers, give me any suggestions on how to raise money for a small charity which specializes in helping the aged? As president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Vincent Cropley Association, I've done fairly well during my brief term of office (the auxiliary was only formed a couple of months ago) but am running out of fundraising ideas and, as a consequence the treasury is running out of money. We have had funny hat and baby picture contests, "Dark Horse" donations and are giving a Chinese auction this month. We cannot have any dances — the men's division gives those. The members of our auxiliary range in age from 30 to 50 and are as nice a bunch of women as you ever met. We would all appreciate your help. —Mrs. Patricia Newton, North Bergen, N. J.

Dear Mrs. Newton: How about staging an old-fashioned Christmas fair, with each member contributing something she has made? Enlist the aid of local storekeepers in arranging the booths, ask them to act as judges and award prizes. Close the fair with a raffle. Other readers may have ideas. If so, please send them to this column.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "On Being a Good Member."

Newspaperboys are IN the News

Day after day, week after week, throughout the year, your Newspaper-boy doesn't make headlines... he delivers them.

Without his services, the millions of dollars spent every week to gather the news from the four corners of the earth and print it on high speed presses so that you can read about it while it is still news, would be largely wasted. We want all of our readers to know that we are proud of the outstanding service performed by newspaperboys and have set aside this day to tell them.

"Thank you for a job well done."

Newspaper route management is much more than delivering newspapers. Each newspaperboy is President and Sales Manager of his own business, engaged in the only part-time job that teaches buying, selling, delivering, collecting, banking, computing profits, etc. This on-the-job training helps him tremendously when he is ready for full-time employment. If you think your son might profit by such experience, why not have him come in and talk to us.
